"JUST" like finding $3.50, as I expected to pay $10 for my Winter Suit, was the remark of a gentleman as we were wrapping up one of the $10 Suits we had reduced to $6.50. Six patterns, but quite a number of sizes in each pattern, yet at the rate they are going a delay will be dangerous. Six patterns of regular $10 Suits that have not sold quite so well as the other $10 suits. To hurry them along we are taking off $3.50.

You little boys and girls should bear in mind that you have only about ten days in which to swell your sales in the little "Pony and Cart" competition. This is the sweetest little pony of the three and his name is Henry of Navarre. You can let him come into your parlor. So gentle.

HOGAN RIDES HIS LAST

Ruled Off at St. Asaph for Pulling Tubal Cain Jr.

NEVER RELEASED HIS HEAD

Took the Horse Back in the Race at the Start and Kept Him There. Long Shots Have a Good Day—Hot Three-Horse Finish in the Fifth. Most Flagrant Case on Record.

With the assistance of a young man by the name of Hogan the bookies gave the talent a bad trouncing at the St. Asaph track yesterday. This Mr. Hogan had the mount on Tubal Cain Jr. in the opening race and he gave a masterly exhibition of how not to win a race that was nearly on a par with some of the work that Jockey Reiff has been putting up on the Pimlico track at Baltimore.

Tubal Cain Jr. looked to have a double-digit first place on the opening race and the bookies quoted him at 3 to 5. It was rumored, however, that he was "on the shelf" and his price quickly went up to 5 to 1. Just before the horses went to the post the talent decided that he was so much better than the lot he was meeting that they would take a chance, and accordingly he put him down to 6 to 5.

He got away from the post well in the first flight, but the boy put his feet up in his neck and getting a good break jerked him back in the race and kept him there. Hogan a most barefaced, crooked, crooked, as the bookies were fighting for his head during the entire trip.

Hogan's work could be by any means be allowed to pass unheeded, and before he had fairly begun the ground he was ruled off. "And," remarked Judge Martin, "there is a boy who will not ride at this track if he brings a petition signed by President Cleveland."

There was a falling off in the number of books that went on, only five doing business. "As only two favorites, and these very tame ones, succeeded in getting home, the talent were not in a very good mood when they boarded the train for home."

LONG SHOT GETS THE FIRST.

Criticism, at 8 to 1 shot, captured the opening event. Black Beauty essayed to make a runaway race of it, but could not stand the pace, and the winner took command in the half-stretch and won all the way. Courtney was second, a neck before Black Beauty.

The books went one better in the next race, when Psyche, a 12 to 1 shot, got out in front at the start, and, staying there to the end, won in a hard drive by a head from Rockton, who was two lengths in front of Longshots.

The third outcome to win was Hondo's Victim. He was at just half the price that Psyche went to the post at. The finish was a pretty one, Cowman bringing his mount up at the last minute and winning by a neck from Mashie.

FIRST FAVORITE TO WIN.
The first favorite to score was Carmelite. He was a 5 to 1 favorite, having been backed from three to five. He broke in the way to a good start, and leading all the way won easily by half a length from Velvet Rose, with Tempo third.

Belle Fernway was a hot choice in the next race, closing at 4 to 5. She was next in demand at three, with the others at 8 to 1. The finish was the best of the day, Sanitation lasting long enough to win by a head from Mow, with Bursar third. Lamberton, Mr. J. H. Jones and Alphonse had all been fancied for the closing race. Jockey also received considerable support. Lamberton finally closed first choice at 9 to 5. Passing the stand he took the lead, and from there home was never headed. Jersey was second, with Jim Jenson third.
